Investment Objectives

To provide its participants with a medium/long-term level of profitability with a premium over money market instruments, through balanced investment (directly or indirectly) in financial instruments with diversified characteristics in terms of asset classes, geographic areas and currencies.

Investor Profile

The Fund is intended for investors, both qualified and non-qualified, with a tolerance for risk, and is therefore suitable for applications of more than 18 months, with a perspective of potential investment appreciation above that of traditional applications in money market instruments.

Manager comments

April was a very volatile month, marked by a very negative start, with great risk aversion after the announcement of the "reciprocal" tariffs, but followed by some recovery, with the 90-day delay of the application of these tariffs, except for China, for bilateral negotiations and a softening of rhetoric with China. The ECB once again cut interest rates by 0.25%, while regarding economic indicators we should highlight the 0.3% contraction in US GDP in the 1st quarter, impacted by a very significant increase in imports. In the Eurozone, GDP grew by 0.4%, while in China it grew by 1.2%. During the month, the 10-year interest rate in Germany fell 0.29% to 2.44%, while in the US it fell 0.04% to 4.16%. Credit spreads widened and stock markets fell.

What helped the Fund:

Government and corporate debt, and alternatives

What harmed the Fund:

Equity

Perspectives for the Fund:

Volatility is likely to continue, with the most pressing issue being how much tariffs can actually fall and what the economic damage will be. Another issue that should have an impact is the tax cuts to be announced in the US, as well as the fiscal stimulus in China. Although the likelihood of recession in the US has increased, fiscal and monetary support at the global level should make it possible to avoid this scenario, bringing some normality to the markets.
